Governing

PURPOSE

TO BE A PLACE OF BEAUTY where memory loves to linger, a cemetery must be so designed that each burial space will be a unit, which makes for the perfection of the whole.

IT HAS BEEN INVARIABLY HELD that purchasers of such burial spaces acquire only the right to the intended use of them and that the interment organization retains the legal title to the ground itself. Because of this, a transaction is not ended with the final payment by a purchaser of the interment rights in the cemetery property, but a continuing relationship exists between the seller and the purchaser or his successors in interest.

ALL PROPERTY OWNERS AND VISITORS within the Cemetery, and all burial spaces, or parts thereof sold, shall be subject to these Rules and Regulations and subject, further, to such other rules and regulations, amendments or alterations as shall be adopted from time to time by the Corporation. The reference to these Rules and Regulations in contracts, deeds and other documents of the Fairfax Memorial Park, shall have the same force and effect as if set forth in full therein.

DEFINITIONS

As used in these Rules and Regulations, the following definitions apply:

- A. The term "Cemetery" shall mean the Fairfax Memorial Park cemetery and any extension(s).
- B. The term "Owner" shall mean the owner of the right of interment in a burial space.
- C. The term "Burial Space(s)" shall mean a space for interment, entombment, or inurnment and shall include lot, site, plot, grave, crypt and niche.
- D. The term "Interment" shall mean burial, entombment, or inurnment of the remains of a deceased person.
- E. The term "Memorial" shall mean any marker or structure upon any burial space placed thereupon or therein or partially therein for the purpose of identification or in memory of the interred.

Memorials, whether purchased from the Cemetery or from an outside source, cannot be placed until the burial space and, when applicable, the second right of interment are paid in full. For a companion marker both burial spaces must be paid in full.
